

Environmental Services Worker
Posting Number: 2022-004-ES-CAS-01
Casual

About Us

Seaview Manor is a compassionate provider of resident centered continuing care serving primarily Zone 3 of the Nova Scotia Health Authority. We are located on the scenic coast of Glace Bay, just 20 minutes from Sydney. We are committed to providing an optimal quality of life for our residents and provide individuals a full scope of programs and services through a safe, nurturing, and caring environment.

Role Summary

Reporting to the Director of Environmental Services the Environmental Services worker is pivotal in maintaining a clean, sanitary, and safe environment for residents, staff, and visitors. Participates in some or all the tasks related to housekeeping services while maintaining a safe, sanitary workplace. May participate in some or all the tasks related to laundry services. Responds to resident, tenant, and building emergencies if necessary

Qualifications

- Grade XII or equivalent
- Housekeeping experience

The following would be considered assets:

- Alzheimer's course an asset
- Certified in WHMIS

Performance Requirements

- Must be in good health and physically able to perform repetitive tasks, lift (up to 50lbs), frequent squatting, bending, standing, and walking are required to perform the duties of the position.
- Ability to operate related equipment.
- Cares for equipment, supplies and work area by ensuring equipment is kept clean and safely stored; defective or damaged equipment and furnishings have been reported through proper documentation.
- Performs & documents required audits, using communication tools.
- Maintains inventory in order on individual carts.
- Understands and demonstrates the use and application of cleaning chemicals to strip, clean, wax and maintain floors of various material.
- Practices and maintains established standards for sanitation, facility cleanliness, safe work environment and other areas required by the Department of Health & Wellness, WCB, other regulative bodies, and the facility.
- Establishes and maintains an atmosphere conducive to dignified living, by creating an environment which maintains the happiness, self-respect, general dignity, and physical safety of each resident.

- Promotes and maintains positive communication and relationships among staff, residents, and the public.
- Participates in department / facility meetings and educational in-services.
- Participates in facility committees and quality improvement initiatives.
- Ability to read, write, and speak English proficiently and understand verbal and written instructions.
- Ability to take direction and learn procedures.
- Ability to work independently and/or as a member of a team.
- Performs other related duties as required.

Interested applicants are invited to submit a cover letter and resume to noting the Posting Number, 2022-004-ES-CAS-01 to careers@seaviewmanor.ca. We thank all those who apply, only those selected for further consideration will be contacted. Posting will remain open until filled.